PENICULTETS.

Attend church. The agony's over. I told you so. Good morning, Mayor Branner! This is the third Sunday in the year 1880.

The days are slowly but gradually and perceptibly lengthening out. The members of the L. R. W. K. will meet in their hall on next Saturday night. All are requested to be present.

We see from the Journal that Judge S. A. Rodgers has replaced his barn, which was recently burned, with a handsome new building.

We would be glad to publish in our next issue the contribution of "A Subscriber" if the writer will furnish us with his name, not for publication, but as a guarantee.

You can find a great variety of Breach-loading Shotguns at W. W. Woodruff & Co.'s, with all the necessary implements, Wads, Shells, Chilled Shot, etc.

The boys and girls had better prepare themselves with Skates before the assortment is broken, and be ready for the big freeze coming. A handsome variety in stock, at W. W. Woodruff & Co.'s.

Farmers from the country contiguous to Knoxville inform us that in the woods where the ground has been covered with leaves and undergrowth, it has not been frozen yet a particle. This is something certainly remarkable, it being now only a month and a half till winter is gone.

The Bessie Darling Theatrical Company fell to pieces and disbanded at Meridian, Miss., last week, and failed to meet their engagement at Nashville Thursday night. A portion of their baggage went through here Friday night, bound for New York.

Morristown comes to the front with still another new weekly paper, the Messenger—very respectable in appearance, a patent outside, five column publication. It is published by W. H. Parker & Co., and is "independent in all things, neutral in nothing."

In the absence of the pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church, Rev. Dr. W. A. Harrison, who is at Rogersville assisting in a meeting, there will be no service at this church to-day, but the congregation will worship with the Broad Street congregation, as is announced.

According to the Index, a tramp calling himself James Ward, while putting up over night at a house in Maryville, where he had forced himself in on the score of pretended acquaintanceship, a few nights ago, stole a watch from Jas. L. Lane, a student at Maryville College, and skipped out. Ward told several tales as to where he hailed from, including Virginia, Knox county, Anderson county, etc. He is described as about forty years old, not very sharp, but he seems to have been sharp enough in this instance.

MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

H. H. Branner Elected Mayor by a Majority of 168.

Over C. W. Charlton, Who Was Second Man.

A Quiet and Peaceable Election in the Main.

Another municipal election has come and gone, and with it the usual excitement and turbulence that was anticipated, however, under the circumstances. There was the usual pulling and hauling at the polls, but there was no disturbance or difficulty of any account. We give here the result, as taken from the official returns made to Recorder White. The election was for one man to serve as Mayor, and two men as Aldermen, from each of the eight wards:

FIRST WARD.
For Mayor—H. B. Branner, 38; S. B. Luttrell, 48; C. W. Charlton, 92; G. W. Albion, 42.
For Aldermen—Thos. A. Hudiburg, 156; J. J. Atkins, 182; B. J. Stephenson, 93.

SECOND WARD.
For Mayor—Branner, 36; Luttrell, 67; Charlton, 27; Albion, 29.
For Aldermen—Alex. Allison, 111; James O'Connor, 93; I. E. Barry, 82.

THIRD WARD.
For Mayor—Branner, 47; Luttrell, 43; Charlton, 55; Albion, 25.
For Aldermen—M. H. Dickson, 96; F. Hockenjos, 76; J. H. Cruze, 74; Jo. Black, 57.

FOURTH WARD.
For Mayor—Branner, 29; Luttrell, 50; Charlton, 11; Albion, 10.
For Aldermen—Jas. S. Boyd, 7; J. M. McAffrey, 78; D. R. Hampton, 32.

FIFTH WARD.
For Mayor—Branner, 90; Luttrell, 31; Charlton, 41; Albion, 117.
For Aldermen—L. Irelia, 133; E. E. McCroskey, 123; P. Shropshire, 111; W. L. Brooks, 87; Harry Calloway, 62.

SIXTH WARD.
For Mayor—Branner, 59; Luttrell, 101; Charlton, 81; Albion, 71.
For Aldermen—T. A. Barrier, 146; Hu. Michaels, 139; W. A. Galbraith, 133; B. E. Badgett, 118.

SEVENTH WARD.
For Mayor—Branner, 205; Luttrell, 33; Charlton, 69; Albion, 31.
For Aldermen—S. A. Caldwell, 153; P. T. Mackey, 137; E. S. Patty, 116; Burt Blair, 116.

EIGHTH WARD.
For Mayor—Branner, 100; Luttrell, 30; Charlton, 56; Albion, 59.
For Aldermen—M. D. Sullivan, 132; J. P. Murphy, 122; Sam. Simcox, 90; E. C. Camp, 80; M. M. Harris, 25.

RECAPITULATION.
For Mayor—H. B. Branner, 590; C. W. Charlton, 433; S. B. Luttrell, (present incumbent), 408; G. W. Albion, 384. Branner's majority over Charlton, 158. Total vote of the city, 1,822.

The total vote of the city in January, 1879, was 1,717; Luttrell, 987; Charlton, 730. Thus it will be seen there were 105 more votes polled this year than last.

THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN stands as follows:
First Ward—Thomas Hudiburg, J. J. Atkins.
Second Ward—Alex. Allison, James O'Connor.
Third Ward—M. H. Dickson, F. Hockenjos.
Fourth Ward—Jas. M. McAffrey, Jas. S. Boyd.
Fifth Ward—E. E. McCroskey, Lawson Irvin.
Sixth Ward—T. A. Barrier, Hu. Michaels.
Seventh Ward—S. A. Caldwell, Pat. T. Mackey.
Eighth Ward—M. D. Sullivan, John P. Murphy.

Messrs. Hudiburg and Atkins, from the First; Michaels, from the Sixth; Mackey, from the Seventh, and Murphy from the Eighth, are new members; the others are all re-elections. All are white men except Irvin. Classed politically the Board stands 14 Democrats and 2 Republicans, as a Democratic Mayor. As to nationality ten of the Board are American descent, four Irish, one German, and one colored.

In the election of Mr. Branner, the city is assured of a good executive officer for the coming year. Mr. Branner is a young man of more than ordinary business qualifications, a number one financier, and a clever and popular gentleman in every sense of the word, with all classes. The result was greeted with enthusiasm by the Branner men, and there was considerable cheering, shouting and serenading on the streets.

Death of an Old Citizen.

Mr. G. M. Hazen, a gentleman who has been identified with the business interests of Knoxville for a half-century, died at his residence in this city yesterday morning, at 3 1/2 o'clock. He had been confined to his bed only a short time, and the serious character of his disease, though known to his family and near friends, was not generally known in the city. For many years Mr. Hazen was engaged in mercantile pursuits in the city. He built, put in operation and operated for many years, the well known Middlebrook Paper Mills, near the city.

He has not been in business for the last two or three years, and has resided in this city, where he had a great many friends, who will regret to hear of his death. He was in his 69th year at the time of his death, but was a remarkably well preserved man for one of his age. He was a true friend and a kind husband and father. He leaves a widow and several grown children to mourn his death.

Personal.
Mr. H. C. Atkinson, Mayor of the town of Franklin, Ky., and who was a member of the firm of "Four Brothers," formerly of this city, arrived here on yesterday evening's train, stopped over a few hours, and went up last night to Jonesboro, where he was summoned by telegram to the bedside of his brother, Lieut. J. J. Atkinson, who is not expected to live.

Capt. R. K. Robinson, of Madisonville, is in the city attending Federal Court. He is on his way to Washington on business, which will detain him there for some days or weeks.

Mr. Wm. Russell, of the Loudon Journal, was in the city yesterday. Came up to witness our municipal contest.

Mr. W. H. McAdoo, one of Anderson county's best citizens, and a substantial and true friend to the Chronicle, was in the city and made us a pleasant call yesterday.

Judge J. F. J. Lewis, County Court Clerk, is on a trip to Nashville, on business connected with his office.

Mr. Jas. H. Cruze, our Market Square hardware merchant, left last night for Eastern markets to replenish his stock of goods.

Col. John H. Savage, of McMinnville, and Col. A. S. Colyar, of Nashville, arrived in the city on yesterday evening's train and are registered at the Lamar House.

A Compliment to Dentists.
Of all professional men, dentists should be the neatest, and as a class they are. Those who require a grateful, refreshing, delightful aroma, while working about the organ of smell, should wet their hands in Dr. Price's Floral Riches. Its fragrance is not only as pleasant as can be imagined, but decidedly stimulating.

THE SECRETARY.

Duprez & Benedict's Minstrels.

Lovers of minstrelsy and fun generally will bear in mind that Duprez & Benedict's Minstrels, the famous and universally popular exponents of burnt cork amusement, will begin an engagement of two nights, at Saut's Opera House to-morrow night. Duprez & Benedict have few if any superiors in the minstrel profession, and a world of fun and mirth is in store for all who are so fortunate as to procure desirable seats.

Of a recent appearance in Nashville, the Nashville American has the following to say:

Duprez & Benedict's Minstrels opened their engagement last night to a fine house in point of numbers. So well known is the organization that explication was great, and if not fully realized, it must be conceded the entertainment was considerably above the average. A refreshing newness was noticed in the personnel of the troupe, and in several of the features. Part first contained many new gags and jokes, and songs, the musical portion being fairly rendered. The specialties were all good, and the sketch work very amusing. Altogether, the audience heartily enjoyed the performance and gave it their strong endorsement.

To Save Money.
Go to McMullen & Co., buy your Boots, Shoes and Umbrellas, and save our money and buy a farm.

The Maine Muddle.
There is trouble in Maine. Angry passion is getting the better of cool judgment, and is causing bitterness. It really looks as though there might be bloodshed. A little blood letting used to be considered a good thing, for a patient, but modern science don't agree with that method of treatment, and recommends for biliousness, Heart's Antibilious Discovery, for coughs and lung troubles, Sympathic, and for worms, Mrs. Winslow's Vermifuge.

The Mission School Entertainment.
The concert and entertainment given for the benefit of the St. Luke's Mission Sabbath School came to a close last night. The ladies served lunch during the day, and a pleasant social gathering, with refreshments, etc., was had at night. Altogether it was quite a success. From Mr. Johnson, who was chief among the management and deserves much credit therefor, we learn that some $40 or $50 was cleared. A very good amount and will go a good way towards finishing and furnishing the house.
